Ahmedabad: August 16, 2016: Today, Nila Infrastructures Limited ("Nila"/the "Company") has entered into an EPC contract for ₹ 874.6 million with Engineering Projects (India) Ltd (EPIL)¹ for construction of the Medical College Campus and Residences at Barmer, Rajasthan.

Department of Medical Education (DME), Govt. of Rajasthan (GOR) has entrusted EPIL to execute construction of a Medical College campus for 100 MBBS admission annually as per applicable MCI norms at Barmer, Rajasthan. The facilities are required for obtaining the LOP (Letter of Permission from MCI) of 1st MBBS admission from session 2017-18. The Medical College Campus site is 9.3 km from District Hospital at Barmer and spread over 19.38 acres of land on NH-15. The Project of about 300,000 sq. ft. has to be completed within 12 months' time.

Commenting on such strategic advancement Mr. Manoj Vadodaria, CMD of the Company said:

"This is a landmark project for Nila. With this Project, Nila is breaking new grounds and graduates further within civic urban infrastructure business. This Project will provide additional opportunities to the Company into Medical and Health related construction business, which has abundant prospect. At Nila, we know that our customers' projects demonstrate progress and are important. This project will facilitate development of budding MBBS professionals and hence, will ensure healthy-and-disease-free future generations of existing 2.6 million citizens of Barmer District.

Our selection for an initial order of such magnitude, from an international scale Prime Contracting Company of India i.e. EPIL, reinforces our qualifications and competence. We understand that it is our responsibility to help our customers deliver on the promise of such projects and we are well-equipped to deliver accordingly. We are glad to work with EPIL on this Project and envisage benefiting from its insight, capabilities, and skills required for such projects.

Meanwhile, we believe that Rajasthan is a Sunrise-state for civic urban infrastructure development and has bountiful potential. Government of Rajasthan (GoR)'s commitment, under "Resurgent

¹ EPIL, incorporated in 1970, is a "Mini Ratna" Company of Government of India, under Department of Heavy Industry. It is a leading Prime Contracting Company having executed 532 multi-disciplinary projects in India for ₹ 84.52 billion and 30 odd projects worth USD 782.00 million in Iraq, Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, UAE, Yugoslavia, Maldives, Bhutan and Thailand.
